I am writing this on behalf of Lenny Begnon; I have known him for many years and he has shown his desire to help people in every way possible.

He was a young boy when I first met him and he had a concern to help anyone that needed him; his "Company of Begnons" has always let every client feel safe when there was a problem of any kind.

Lenny was a smart and loving husband and father to his children.

I do not believe what has been said about what he is being accused of. I trust him in every way possible.
